

CAS Annual Report, 2003-2004

Members of the CAS 2002-03:

Jennifer Delton, History (chair)

David Vella, Mathematics and Computer Science

Robert Turner, Government (Fall semester only)

David Peterson, Art and Art History (replacing Bob Turner, spring semester)

Jon Ramsey, Dean of Studies of Skidmore College, the

CAS to discuss if CAS saw ampus. This led to several tributes to academic rigor by committee decided against

Dean Oles met with CAS s with regard to those CAS is considering a want a "second chance" to ampus life if it actually knew ns, the CAS agreed to have beginning of the Academic o this effect. The policy was ch uneven results. These 04 review went smoother.
qualify rather than grant or year.

n Egelman and Cynthia

nit.

ered the need for this sonal leave can receive credit. This limit existed to prevent students who had been denied permission to study abroad would take a personal leave, study abroad, and petition for credit. Cori Filson reported that this is no longer a problem. CAS decided to rescind two course limit for people on personal leave in US, who can now petition for up to eleven credits, but will no longer allow any credit for non-approved study abroad programs. See guidelines.

" Asterisks and the commencement program - For a variety of reasons, these asterisks denoting August graduates may be unnecessary. CAS discussed and decided to keep them.

Academic Review (courtesy of Patty Ivory)

January 2004 2007 2006 2005 2004 Total

Disqualifications 7 4 7 4 22

Leave-

Withdrawals approved - 39
Withdrawals denied - 3
Miscellaneous approvals - 32
Miscellaneous denials - 5

The Chair of next year's CAS remains unknown at the current time. Next year the Committee will look something like this:

Jennifer Delton
David Peterson
Rik Scarce (replacing Bob Turner)
Grace Burton, Interim Dean of Studies
Ann Henderson, Registrar
[student rep]
Regular visitors (nonvoting):
Tina Levith, Associate director, Dean of Studies
Dave DeConno, Associate Registrar

Respectfully submitted,
Jennifer Delton, chair, CAS
July 19, 2004