

CAS Annual Report, 2004-2005

Members of the CAS 2004-2005:

Jennifer Delton, History (chair)

the granting of AP credit. No resolution.

- FYS policy – In conjunction with the director of the FYE and CEPP, CAS considered what Skidmore policy should be with regard to transfers, freshmen deferrals, and students who do not otherwise successfully complete the Scribner Seminar. Do all students have to complete a Scribner Seminar to graduate? It was decided that transfers with 12 or more credits would not have to take a Scribner Seminar, freshmen deferrals would, while for at least the next two years withdrawals and failures would be decided on a case by case basis by CAS and FYE director. CEPP presented this information to the faculty at the April 1, 2005 faculty meeting. See CEPP memo.

- Medical/Personal Leave policy – This has been an ongoing conversation for the past several years. Discussion in the spring focused on the “Process for Return from Medical Leave” segment of the proposed Medical/Personal Leave policy, which proposes mandated leaves after a medical leave “bailout,” as well as deadlines for appeals for exceptions to the mandated leave. The Th e-3(h ni)-6(oT ]p, students are in fact well and ready to re-assume the burdens of academic life when they return. On March 3, 2005, Pat Oles, Julia Routbort, and Cynthia Guile joined CAS for a discussion of this proposed policy. Critics of the proposed policy would like to see more flexibility, a policy less encouraging of adversarial relations between families and Skidmore, a policy that does not stigmatize chronic mental illness by requiring stricter return guidelines than for other illnesses. The main division over this policy is between those who want a stricter, more formal, standardized process in the interests of fairness to students and families, and those who prefer the current informal, case-by-case policy, which seems more friendly, flexible, and appropriate for the medical issues at issue. The policy is currently in the process of being revised.

- Chronic illness and medical “bailout”: Other issues –1) how do we treat the bailout semester as we measure "progress toward the degree?"; 2) how do we treat a student who returns to the College and needs to be bailed out again? And 3) should we allow students who are not meeting minimum academic standards to withdraw from the College without facing disqualification? No resolution.
